

Test Drive a Process Resource Center Computer Security Incident Response Plan

Tap Image to Open Site

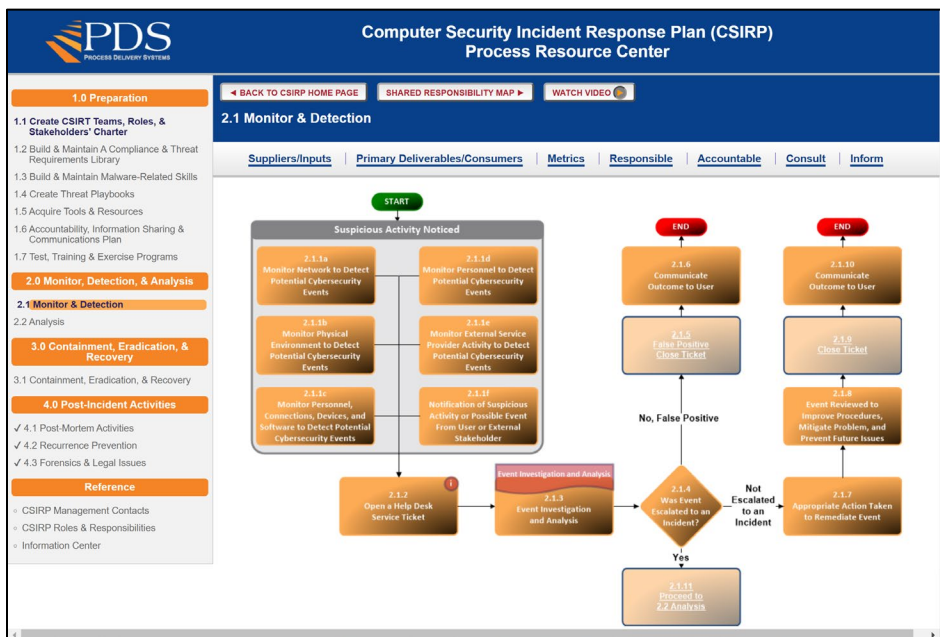

The Computer Security Incident Response Plan Process Resource Center delivers all components of the CSIRP one purpose-built web framework. Its foundation is the NIST SP 800-61 Rev. 2. It's a subset of the organization's computer security plan. All resources are within a few finger-taps of staff in the context of their work.

Tap Image for Video

Test Drive a Process Resource Center Computer Security Incident Response Plan

Tap Image for Workflow

Process flows are worker-focused, visually and operationally consumable, not overwhelming. Shared Responsibility Mapping is a part of every workflow.

Tap Image to Open Charter

The Computer Security Incident Response Team Charter is designed for instant navigation to the desired content. No time wasted scrolling to find critical information.

Computer Security Incident Response Team (CSIRT) Charter

Contact:
Henry Draughon
Process Delivery Systems
hdraughon@processdeliverysystems.com

Tap Hyperlinks to Navigate

Hyperlinks

Table of Contents

Introduction	3
Purpose	4
Scope	4
Goals	5
Authority	6
Membership	7
CSIRT Diagram	8
Roles Responsibilities	8
Internal Roles Responsibilities	8
External Roles Responsibilities	11
Roster	14
Approved by	15

Henry Draughon
Process Delivery Systems
(972) 980-9041

hdraughon@processdeliverysystems.com

<https://www.processdeliverysystems.com>

